A Word from the President

Intercollegiate athletics are a very important part of life at Shelton State, not just for Shelton State President Dr. Rick Rogers looks at athletics as a way of bringing the campus together the participants, but for the entire college. Athletics teach our students the importance of teamwork, commitment and sacrifice.

The student body enjoys the competition as fans and, perhaps more importantly, pulling for the home team gives them an opportunity to come together as a community.

In recent years, Shelton entered the national spotlight in athletics. Our golf team won the national championship in its division in 1999, and in 1999-00, our women's basketball team won the state championship and reached the national Final Four.

We have the only women's soccer team in the state of Alabama, and our men's basketball program is renowned for its up-tempo style. We have also recently built new fields on campus for our winning baseball and softball teams.

As Shelton competes this year in the gyms and fields across the state and nation, I look forward to continued success in athletics at Shelton State.

Looking ahead to continued improvement in athletics

By Susan Mohun, Coordinator of Athletics

Shelton State Community College has so much to be proud of, especially our athletic department which is well on its way to state, regional and national recognition.

Our men's golf team finished third nationally in Division II last year after having claimed the national title in 1999. Our 2000 Lady Bucs basketball team won the NJCAA Region XXII championship and advanced to the Final Four in the national tournament. Shelton State baseball won the Region XXII regular season championship and our women's soccer team just completed its first winning season.

We have recently completed our baseball and softball fields adjacent to our soccer field, so that we now house all of our sports here on the magnificent Martin Campus. Men's and women's basketball showcase their talents in the Umphrey Center, a 2000-seat arena. Our golf team calls the University Course home. Our administration, coaches and athletic department staff are dedicated to making Shelton State athletics synonymous with EXCELLENCE and WINNING and we appreciate the support of the Tuscaloosa and West Alabama community as we strive towards our championship goals.

Coach Mohun's style leads to high scores and thrills

Barry Mohun began his collegiate basketball career at Huntingdon College in Montgomery, Ala. and concluded it at Belhaven College in Jackson, Miss. At Belhaven, he was chosen for the All-Region team.

After graduating, Mohun began coaching in Texas and then returned to his home state of Alabama where he had successful coaching tenures at both St. James School and T.R. Miller High School.

Mohun continued his education at Northeast Louisiana University where he earned his master's degree while serving as a graduate assistant coach for the men's basketball program at NLU.

He has coached at Pine Forest High School in Pensacola, Paxton High School in Paxton, Fla. and most recently at Prattville High School in Prattville, Ala. His 1997-98 team at Prattville posted the most wins in school history and advanced to the state high school Final Four and Mohun was voted 6A Metro Coach of the Year.

His first two seasons at Shelton State Community College were successful ones, posting a 18-13 record both years.

Mohun is eagerly awaiting the start of his third season at Shelton State Community College. Three starters return to Shelton for their sophomore season. They are Derrick Wright, Rodney Bias, and Ulysses Jenkins. Also returning for the Bucs will be Fernando Pickett and Phillip Ike, who were redshirted last season. "We are really looking for some great play and leadership from the guys returning from last year's team," said Mohun.

The Bucs will rely heavily on newcomers to contribute immediately in the team's up-tempo style. Guards Ronald Cooper, Deon Pritchett, and Mike Christian should be able to play at both guard positions. Junior college transfers Sandy Bennett and Daniel Benton will play

Thompson quests for title repeat

For a number of years the Shelton State women's basketball program struggled mightily.

Before the days of Title IX, which mandates equal opportunity for women in athletics, no one placed much priority on women sports. Shelton had fielded a softball team—and had produced some pretty good female athletes in both basketball and softball. But who was counting?

Attitudes began to change in the '90s, and Shelton struggled along, trying to build a solid women's program on the junior college level.

sity of Alabama with a master's degree in speech-language pathology—still looked like a college player and could still shoot like one!

Thompson played basketball for Coach Rick Moody at UA from 1991-95, including being a part of the 1994 Final-Four squad. She earned a degree in communicative disorders and a reputation as a strong competitor with a sweet outside shot.

The Collinwood, Tenn., native took a job in Birmingham after earning her masters, but she still had an eye for hoops. "I kept in touch with Coach Moody, and he helped me when this job opened up. I always loved basketball. Even though I have a master's degree in something else, I always felt I would do something with basketball. It all fell into place with this job."

Thompson says she received more from Coach Moody than just help with finding her first coaching post; she learned a coaching philosophy. "To me it's all about team unity. That's what I learned from Coach Moody. He really emphasized team togetherness, and we've really tried to do the same things

Golf team preps for spring season with good final fall showing

Shelton golfers polished off their fall season on Nov. 6 and 7 by coming in second with Gadsden State, beating other Alabama junior colleges in the Alabama Intercollegiate at Cambrian Ridge in Greenville.

The Buccaneers' score was 312-294, for a total of 606. The tournament was won by the University of Mobile with a 592 total. Mobile is a NAIA institution.

Shelton's top two golfers in the tourney made the all-tournament team. They were Carle Andren, 72-76 and Pope Sprueill, 80-68.

Other Shelton competitors were Jason Davidson, 80-74, Steven Haayen, 80-76 and Richard Cooper, 84-81.

This was the team's last outing until the spring and a Feb. 5-6 date in Melbourne, Fla.

"We got off to a slow start in the fall, with eight freshmen on the team. But we may have just found something that works in our last tournament," said Matt Terry, the Buccaneers' fiery head coach.

"This was our toughest competition in the fall and we placed our best. I think the kids are looking forward to some strenuous off-season practice. I think we can all look forward to good things this spring."

Their fall 2000 record was 58-42-2.
